

12th December 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

Human rights week!

This week, Don Valley will be celebrating Human Rights. Students will be learning about their rights based on The United Nations Convention Rights of a Child UN Convention on the Rights of the Child - UNICEF UK.

The convention is based on what a child needs to survive, grow, and live a healthy and happy life. There will be exciting activities at break and lunch time, as well as learning taking place in the classroom. Students will learn about Human Rights as part of our journey to achieve the UNICEF Rights Respecting Silver Award.

On Friday 15th December we will be having a 'Right to Be Me Day' and this is where students can come dressed in non-school uniform to celebrate 'being me'.

We are also inviting parents to join us at 8.45am for a parent coffee morning on Friday 15th December where some pupils will be running activities based on rights and will be showing parents the learning, they have completed through out the week. We hope to see lots of parents there.
